

BODY LAID TO REST.

SENATOR FLANNAGAN BURIED WITH FULL MASONIC HONORS.

PILKINTON'S TRIAL NEXT AUGUST.

Mr. Hill Carter Will Be In the District Court.

With Colonel Wickham in His Defense—Prisoner More Cheerful—Mrs. Flannagan Not Bitter Against Him.

The funeral of Mr. William M. Flannagan, who was shot and killed by Mr. W. G. Pilkinton at Powhatan Courthouse on Monday, took place from Peterville church, in Powhatan, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

It was attended by crowds of people from all parts of Powhatan and Cumberland, and several gentlemen went from Richmond. A number of floral tributes were sent from this city, among the number one from the employees of Mr. Flannagan, and another from friends of the deceased Senator about the courthouse.

WITH MASONIC HONORS.

The following special was received by the Dispatch last night from Powhatan Courthouse:

All that was mortal of State Senator William M. Flannagan was tenderly laid to rest in the churchyard at Peterville in this, his adopted county, at 4 o'clock today, Rev. Dr. W. V. Tudor, of Richmond, assisted by Rev. Mr. Burton, of the Methodist church, conducted the religious ceremonies, and there were present the members of the M. W. D. W. M. Lodge, No. 10, and Dover Lodge, No. 28, of both of which bodies he was an esteemed and honored member, who gave it a Masonic burial.

The following gentlemen, of all ages and stations in life, and from all sections of this and the adjoining counties, and others from Richmond, Petersburg, and remote sections commenced to gather in around his late home, and accompanied the remains to the grave a distance of more than four miles. The church, a large building, was inadequate to accommodate the crowd.

The following gentlemen, selected from the Masonic order, were the active participants: Judge T. M. Miller, A. M. Howard, E. A. Bugh, J. B. Sadler, W. R. Davis, and William M. Tullum, W. F. Tucker, R. S. Reams, Daniel W. Tucker, J. W. Duncan, and C. W. Dickinson.

The grave was literally strewn with flowers, and when the ceremonies were over, and the concluding prayer and benediction pronounced by Right Worshipful H. D. Hagland, chaplain of the lodges, there were many sad hearts and few dry eyes in the vast crowd of friends and neighbors.

AN ORDER OF COURT.

The following order issued here yesterday bears upon this case:

In the District Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia.

In the matter of George E. Anderson, in bankruptcy—Bankrupt.

At Richmond, in said district, on the 5th day of July, A. D. 1899, before William F. Wickham, referee in bankruptcy.

This being the day appointed by the court for the meeting of creditors in the above bankruptcy, of which due notice has been given, and it appearing to the court that William M. Flannagan, attorney for bankrupt, has departed this life, on motion of Daniel Kirkman, counsel for several creditors, and Conway R. Sands, of counsel for bankrupt, it is ordered that this meeting be adjourned to the 7th day of July, A. D. 1899, at 10 o'clock A. M.

WILLIAM F. WICKHAM, Referee in bankruptcy.

Mr. Flannagan was counsel in several important cases pending in the various courts here.

PILKINTON'S TRIAL IN AUGUST.

A grand jury will be summoned to investigate the charges of murder against Mr. Pilkinton at the next term of the Powhatan County Court, which will be held on the first Monday in August. It is probable that the case will be tried at the same time, if a jury can be procured, and it is quite probable that a change of venue to Richmond will be asked.

Mr. Hill Carter will probably be associated with Colonel W. F. Wickham in the prisoner's defense, and they will be opposed by strong counsel, not as yet selected by the friends of Mr. Pilkinton in this city, to assist Hon. Asa D. Watkins, the Commonwealth's Attorney of Prince Edward county, who has been designated by Judge Miller to conduct the prosecution.

The four principal witnesses will be Messrs. Robert R. Lee, J. Haskins Hobson, W. S. Goode, and R. W. Winfree, who were close to Mr. Flannagan and Mr. Pilkinton at the time the shooting occurred. Their testimony will be along the identical lines of the account of the tragedy which appeared in the Dispatch.

MR. PILKINTON MORE CHEERFUL.

Mr. Pilkinton had a stream of callers all day yesterday. He spent the entire day in the jail office, and was in much better spirits than at any time since the shooting. He was cheerful and confident, and seemed to be enjoying the company of his counsel, Colonel William F. Wickham, and it was decided to ask Mr. Hill Carter to assist in the defense.

Concerning the criticism of his action in shooting Mr. Flannagan, Mr. Pilkinton said last night that he was given no opportunity of defending himself in that manner. "Mr. Flannagan attacked me from behind," he said, "and hit me such a severe lick that the next blow that I was given and rendered almost irresponsible. I had no notion of shooting him when I drew my pistol, but I was being punished from behind, with no means of defending myself, and I drew my pistol for the purpose of warning my assailant."

MRS. FLANNAGAN NOT BITTER.

Mrs. Pilkinton will come to Richmond again today to see her husband, and will probably remain here several days. A close relative of Mrs. Flannagan's called upon Mr. Pilkinton yesterday. He had just returned from Powhatan, and told that the widow of the deceased was not so bitter against him since she had heard the circumstances of the shooting. The gentleman also volunteered the information that there was practically no feeling in Powhatan against Mr. Pilkinton.

THE CITY COMMITTEE TO-NIGHT.

It will meet to fix a date for the Primary.

The City Democratic Committee will meet to-night to decide upon a date for the legislative primary.

It is generally believed that the date selected will be the 27th of July, possibly one or two days earlier. It is understood that all the candidates save two have no preference, or are not earnestly opposing a July date.

SPANISH PRISONERS MAY BE FREE.

It is feared the Yorktown's Crew Will Not.

WASHINGTON, July 5.—The War Department has received from General Otis advice relative to the negotiations proceeding in Luzon between the Spanish commissioners and Aguinaldo, looking to the release of the Spanish prisoners. General Otis's report indicates that there is a fair prospect that these unfortunate

WHEELER CHOSEN.

WILL DELIVER THOMAS COURSE AT RICHMOND COLLEGE.

OLD GREEK LIFE HIS THEME.

Its Various Phases to Be Treated in Five Discourses—Something About the Distinguished Educator and Lecturer.

Professor Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Ph. D., LL. D., head Professor of Greek in Cornell University, will deliver the James Thomas lectures at Richmond College next fall.

The committee, of which Professor Charles H. Winston is chairman, having the matter of securing the lectures provided for by the Thomas Endowment, could itself most happy in securing Professor Wheeler. Professor Winston has just received a letter from him stating in unqualified language that he will come.

This distinguished and scholarly educator is just now very much in the public eye, especially the college public. He has just been cordially, if not persistently, invited to the presidency of the California, and to the presidency of the California.

The press of Colorado is very indignant over what it calls "the fake gold statue" that is to typify the State of Colorado at the Paris Exposition. What enrages the papers of that State, and, according to the state is to be made in this city by a New York sculptor, modeled upon the figure of Miss Maude Adams, who is not a native of Colorado, and is not to be of the same metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

WHEELER CHOSEN.

WILL DELIVER THOMAS COURSE AT RICHMOND COLLEGE.

OLD GREEK LIFE HIS THEME.

Its Various Phases to Be Treated in Five Discourses—Something About the Distinguished Educator and Lecturer.

Professor Benjamin Ide Wheeler, Ph. D., LL. D., head Professor of Greek in Cornell University, will deliver the James Thomas lectures at Richmond College next fall.

The committee, of which Professor Charles H. Winston is chairman, having the matter of securing the lectures provided for by the Thomas Endowment, could itself most happy in securing Professor Wheeler. Professor Winston has just received a letter from him stating in unqualified language that he will come.

This distinguished and scholarly educator is just now very much in the public eye, especially the college public. He has just been cordially, if not persistently, invited to the presidency of the California, and to the presidency of the California.

The press of Colorado is very indignant over what it calls "the fake gold statue" that is to typify the State of Colorado at the Paris Exposition. What enrages the papers of that State, and, according to the state is to be made in this city by a New York sculptor, modeled upon the figure of Miss Maude Adams, who is not a native of Colorado, and is not to be of the same metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.

The State of Colorado feels indignant chiefly because, according to the papers, it is to be made of gold, but of a base metal covered with only a thin veneer of gold. The Colorado papers claim that that State can readily furnish the gold, and the model, and the sculptor, and the need to come East for anything in the line of this sort of art.